EtonHouse Zhong Hua Pre-School

Give your child a strong foundation in Chinese

- An inquiry-based Full Mandarin Immersion Programme
- Exclusive Mandarin-speaking environment
- Added emphasis on Chinese culture appreciation
- Native-speaking language teachers with professional qualifications in early childhood
- Home-like environment, featuring a beautiful garden and an outdoor playground, with rich and meaningful learning resources

Why is early exposure to Mandarin important?

"Now, Song Xuan talks to us in Mandarin about half the time at home. He loves Mandarin pop songs and enjoys doing his Chinese homework. When we go to the library, he would want to borrow Chinese books."

Parents' Sharing

"Our initial goal for our children was to have them gain a good foundation in Chinese in preparation for primary school. To our delight, EtonHouse Zhong Hua not only continues to deliver on this, but its caring and supportive team dedicates itself to developing the children under its care into confident, curious individuals with a sense of responsibility."
